| Summary | |
| Can't decide whether you love acting, singing or dancing more? Then Performing Arts is for you. Covering all three disciplines, it gives you a great opportunity to study what you love. You will get the chance to perform inside and outside of college, with previous performances held at Beaulieu, the Maritime Museum and a ghost walk around Southampton's Walls. You can also choose to be part of the Totton College Theatre Company and get even more experience of the big stage! | |
| What are the course aims? | What can it lead to? |
| The course aims to introduce you to the disciplines of dance and drama. | By successfully completing this course at Merit level, you can go on to BTEC Extended Diploma in Performing Arts. |
| What will I study on this course? | |
| You will be designated a role within a performing arts company and your work will involve making and rehearsing material for a performance and presenting this to a range of audiences. You will also write a budget, market the event and prepare an income and expenditure account for a performing arts production. | |
| You will have many opportunities to: | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Investigate practitioners in dance and drama - Develop skills and techniques for live performance and group workshops - Explore performing arts in the community | |
| Are there opportunities for trips or fieldwork? | |
| Throughout the year there will be opportunities to take part in a range of visits and performances. These will be in collaboration with other companies and in our own theatre at Hanger Farm. | |
| Are there any other costs? | There is a cost of £75 to cover the cost of a branded hoodie and sweatshirt, a theatre trip to the Nuffield and a trip to London. |
| How will I be assessed? | What are the entry requirements? |
| You work will be assessed internally and externally, combining practical and written assignments. | A mixture of GCSEs at grades D and E. An interest within the performing arts, with previous experience in two of the three art forms (dance, drama and music). |
